School News

It can't be the 100th day of school already!

Mrs. Engelhardt's and Miss Patrick's students were busy counting up to 100, writing 100, jumping to 100, and doing many activities involving the number 100.

That means there are only 80 days left of school!

We are more than half way there! Let the countdown begin.

Marco places 10 animals on the counting board that displayed 100 objects!

Bianca read 100 words!

Lorenzo jumped on the trampoline with his friends. Together they jumped 100 times!

Princy made the number 100 with Play Doh!

Bryce collected and counted 100 Valentine candy hearts!

Stacy created a collage for the 100th Day of School!

Julia used bingo dabbers to make the number 100!

Hooray for the 100th day of school!

MIDLAND'S GOT TALENT! Two teams competed in various skills: lay-ups, passing, dribbling, and set shots, with staff and students playing side by side. Many baskets made it through the hoops, and the cheerleaders were there to cheer them on!

School News

Throughout February, students were celebrating Black History Month. All classes took part in this schoolwide project. The student council sponsored a Black History Month Quilt; the individual pieces came together to create a wall of inspiring Black Americans from past and present.

Celebrations

Birthdays are a day to celebrate the day you were born.

Make your day in March be one that is as wonderful as you are!

May all your birthday wishes and dreams come true!

Parental Rights in Special Education

Presented by: Maria Fischer, Attorney at Law
Hinkle, Prior & Fischer, P.C.

When Monday, March 11, 2024
6:30 – 8:00 P.M.

Where: Live Virtual Webinar via Zoom
(Register directly with the presenter by the link below*)

We are happy to have Ms. Maria Fischer, a well-recognized expert, and partner with the law firm of Hinkle, Prior & Fischer, with us to provide a live webinar on your critical legal rights as you navigate the special education system for your child or young adult. As part of her presentation, Ms. Fischer will guide you on effectively working with your school district to ensure appropriate programming and services. There will also be an opportunity for a more individualized question-and-answer period that will allow assistance with specific issues you may be encountering. We aim to enhance your knowledge and confidence as you participate in a process that can seem daunting and sometimes frustrating.

If you plan to attend this very informative event, please register in advance by this link:

Please get in touch with School Psychologist, Dr. Tom Enos (enos@midlandnj.org) with any questions. We are looking forward to seeing you on March 11th!

Events

Please invite families that you know whose child may benefit from out-of-district placement. If they have never been to The Midland School, this Open House provides a tour of the building, see the classrooms in session, and meet the President/CEO and School Principal to get their questions answered. Help us spread the word!
